

Schaeffler India Limited

Code on Prohibition of Insider Trading

Part – 1:

Code of Conduct to Regulate, Monitor and Report Trading by Designated Persons and their Immediate Relatives

This Policy is only an internal code of conduct and one of the measures to avoid Insider Trading. It will be the responsibility of each person covered under the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015, as amended, to ensure compliance with applicable provisions of law, regulations, guidelines and other related statutes.

1. Purpose & Summary

This Code of Conduct on Prohibition of Insider Trading has been adopted by Schaeffler India Limited (hereinafter referred to as the “Company”) to ensure compliance of legal requirements in alignment with the business philosophy and ethics of the Company. With rapid change in global economic scenario, a move towards enhanced corporate governance culture is inevitable, as we are committed to continually reviewing and updating our policies and procedures. Securities and Exchange Board of India [SEBI] had vide Notification No. LAD-NRO/GN/2014-15/21/85 dated January 15, 2015 issued SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 and has further amended the said Regulations vide notifications dated December 31, 2018, January 21, 2019, December 29, 2019, July 17, 2020 and October 29, 2020.

In view of the foregoing, the Company has formulated this Code as a part of Code of Internal Procedures and Conduct for Regulating, Monitoring and Reporting by Designated Persons and their Immediate Relatives. This Code of Conduct may be modified by resolution of the Board of Directors to keep pace with any changes in law or otherwise.

2. Scope

Primarily the scope of this Code of Conduct applies to Unpublished Price-sensitive Information pertaining to the Company.

3. Governing Regulations

Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 including any amendment(s) thereto (hereinafter referred as “SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015”) and any other regulations or laws as may be applicable from time to time including any amendments therein.

4. Basic Principles

The duties under relevant laws, in particular the transparency obligations, are intended to prevent any information advantage for individual market participants and are thereby expected to ensure at all times the best possible transparency and the development of prices of the Company’s financial instruments or securities traded on the stock exchange. Thus, both the capital markets as institutions as well as the individual investors are protected in terms of their investment decisions.

5. Commencement

This version (Version 3) of the Code shall be effective from April 1, 2019.

The term "Securities" as used in this Code includes shares, stocks, bonds, debenture stock or any other marketable security of a like nature, by whatever name so called, listed with a Stock Exchange in India and belonging to the Company.

Any term not defined in this Code shall have same meaning as per SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 as amended from time to time.

7. Prohibition of Insider Trading or Dealing

Elements of Prohibition:

Insider trading or dealing in the securities is prohibited by law for all employees, directors and all persons worldwide having access to Unpublished Price-sensitive Information of the Company whether directly or indirectly. This prohibition includes trading, disclosure and the giving of recommendations.

A. Prohibition on Trading to use inside information to directly or indirectly acquire or dispose of or attempt to acquire or dispose of securities for own account or for the account or on behalf of a third party,

B. Prohibition on disclosure to disclose or make available inside information to a third party without the authority to do so in the ordinary course of the performance of duties for the Company; this shall apply regardless of whether or not the inside information is disclosed within the Company or passed on to an external third party.

C. Prohibition on Recommendation to recommend, on the basis of inside information, that a third party acquires or disposes of securities, or to otherwise induce a third party to do so.

Any infringement of the prohibition on insider dealing generally results not only in far-reaching negative effects on the reputation of the Company in the capital markets but can also result in imprisonment, fines or monetary penalties for any employee involved. In addition, other criminal law sanctions come into consideration such as court orders to counter any pecuniary advantage.

Moreover, steps can also be taken against the respective employee involved in any infringement under employment law up to the level of an immediate termination from employment.

8. Duty of Confidentiality

In order to avoid any infringement of the prohibition on insider trading or dealing it should be ensured in particular that confidentiality on (possibly) sensitive information with respect to the stock market price of the securities is maintained. This includes, amongst other matters, the following measures:

A. Unauthorised persons should not receive any access to or knowledge of confidential information.

B. Internally, confidential information should only be passed on if such confidential information is required for the performance of a respective professional task ("need-to-know principle"); in case information is passed on reference should be made to the fact that it is confidential.

- C. Confidential information should not be passed on to third parties or discussed with third parties unless the third party requires the information to fulfil obligations for the Company and is obliged by law or by contract to treat such information as confidential and to use such information exclusively for the intended purpose.
- D. Confidential information should not be discussed in public or in any place where unauthorised parties can listen to it. In this regard special attention must be paid to conversations or discussions outside of the office.

9. Compliance Officer

- A. The Company has, in accordance with the provisions of SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015, designated the Company Secretary of the Company as Compliance Officer who shall report to the board of directors of the Company and in particular shall provide reports to the Chairman of the Audit Committee at such frequency as may be stipulated by the board of directors of the Company, but not less than once in a year.
- B. The Compliance Officer shall be responsible, inter alia, for compliance of policies, procedures, maintenance of records, monitoring adherence to the rules for the preservation of Unpublished Price-sensitive Information, monitoring of trades and the implementation of the Code of Conduct under the overall supervision of the board of directors of the Company.
- C. The Compliance Officer shall maintain a record of the Designated Persons and any changes made in the list of Designated Persons.
- D. The Compliance Officer shall assist all the employees in addressing any clarifications regarding the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 and this Code of Conduct.

10. Preservation of “unpublished price sensitive information”

- A. Insider shall maintain the confidentiality of all Unpublished Price-sensitive Information and he/she shall not communicate, provide or allow access to any such information to any person including other insiders except where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations. Insider shall not pass on such information to any person directly or indirectly by way of making a recommendation for the purchase or sale of securities.
- B. Need to know
Unpublished Price-sensitive Information is to be handled on a “need to know” basis, i.e., should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duty.
- C. Limited access to confidential information
Files containing confidential information shall be kept secure. Computer files must have adequate security of login and password etc.
- D. Chinese Wall Procedures

The Managing Director shall lay down appropriate Chinese Wall (information barrier) Procedures, providing for separation of area of the Company which routinely have access to UPSI, to be designated as 'Inside Area' from those area which deal with sales/marketing/support services/common facility area, to be designated as 'Public Area'. Identification of various functional departments may be done as 'inside area'. Access to the 'inside area' shall be restricted and segregated from 'public area'. The employees working in 'inside area' shall not be permitted to disclose UPSI to any person in the 'Public Area'. A Designated Person from public area may be allowed to 'cross the wall' and UPSI may be shared with such Designated Person on 'need to know' basis with approval from MD/CEO or CFO.

11. Prevention of Insider Trading

- A. Managing Director / CEO shall put in place adequate and effective system of internal controls to ensure compliance of the regulations to prevent insider trading which shall include:
- a. employees who have access to UPSI are identified as Designated Employee;
 - b. confidentiality of UPSI shall be maintained as per the requirements of the regulations;
 - c. adequate restrictions on communication and procurement of UPSI are in place as required under the regulations;
 - d. list of employees and other persons with whom Unpublished Price-sensitive Information is shared shall be maintained and confidentiality agreements shall be signed or notice of confidentiality shall be served to all such employees and persons;

A structured digital database shall be maintained containing the nature of unpublished price sensitive information and names and Permanent Account Numbers ('PAN') of the Designated Persons and their Immediate Relatives and of such persons or entities with whom information is shared for legitimate purpose. Where PAN for any of the person is not available, any other identifier authorized by law shall be used. Such databases shall not be outsourced and be maintained internally with adequate internal controls and checks such as time stamping and audit trails to ensure non-tampering of the database.

- B. Designated Persons shall be required to disclose names, PAN or other identifier authorised by law, of the following persons to the Company on an annual basis and as and when the information changes:
- a. Immediate Relatives;
 - b. Person with whom such Designated Person has material financial relationship; and
 - c. Phone mobile and cell number which are used by them;

In addition, the names of educational institution from which Designated Persons have graduated and names of their past employers shall also be disclosed on a one time basis.

Explanation: The term material financial relationship shall mean a relationship in which one person is a recipient of any kind of payment such as by way of loan/gift during immediate preceding 12 months, equivalent to at least 25% of such payer's annual income but shall exclude relationships in which the payment is based on arm's length transactions.

- C. The Audit Committee shall review compliance with the provisions of these regulations at least once in a financial year and shall verify that the systems for internal control are adequate and are operating effectively.

- D. Leak of UPSI can be reported through the existing Whistle Blower Policy/Vigil Mechanism of the Company.
- E. In case of leak or a suspected leak of UPSI, the provisions and procedure contained in the Whistle Blower Policy of the Company shall be applied for inquiries and investigation.
- F. The Company shall initiate appropriate inquiries on becoming aware of leak or suspected leak of UPSI and it shall inform SEBI promptly of such leaks, inquiries and results of such inquiries.
- G. Any employee, whether designated or not, shall be brought 'inside' (i.e. informed about) on sensitive transaction (i.e. a transaction involving UPSI or potential thereof), only on 'need to know' basis and at the time of sharing of such information, such individual shall be made aware of his duties and responsibilities attached to the inside information and liabilities that attaches to misuse or unwarranted use of such information.
- H. The Company shall endeavour to keep minimum gap between the meeting of Audit Committee and that of Board of Directors, for the purpose of recommendation and approval of Financial Results and preferably on the same day to avoid leakage of information.

Code on Prohibition of Insider Trading

Part – 2:

Code of Fair Disclosure and Conduct

Effective from April 1, 2019

Code of Fair Disclosure and Conduct

To ensure timely and adequate disclosure of Unpublished Price-sensitive Information, the Company will ensure the following:

1. Prompt public disclosure of Unpublished Price-sensitive Information:
 - A. Unpublished Price-sensitive Information shall be disclosed by the Company to stock exchanges and disseminated on a continual and immediate basis.
 - B. The Company may improve investor access to the public announcements by other supplemental means.
2. Overseeing and co-ordinating disclosure: The Compliance Officer shall be responsible:
 - A. to oversee fair disclosure;
 - B. for ensuring that the Company complies with continual disclosure requirements;
 - C. overseeing and co-ordinating in consultation with Managing Director (CEO) or Chief Financial Officer of the Company, disclosure of Unpublished Price-sensitive Information to stock exchanges, analysts, shareholders and media and educating staff on disclosure policies and procedure.
3. Responding to market rumours:
 - A. The Company shall have clearly laid down procedures for responding to any queries or requests for verification of market rumours by exchanges.
 - B. The official designated as Chief Investor Relation Officer shall be responsible for deciding whether a public announcement is necessary for verifying or denying rumours and then making the disclosure.
4. Timely Reporting of shareholdings/ownership and changes in ownership:

Disclosure of shareholdings/ownership by major shareholders and disclosure of changes in ownership as provided under any Regulations made under the Securities Exchange Board of India Act, 1992 and the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 shall be made in a timely and adequate manner.
5. Disclosure/dissemination of Unpublished Price-sensitive Information with special reference to analysts, research personnel and institutional investors. The Company shall follow the guidelines given hereunder while dealing with analysts and institutional investors:
 - A. Only generally available information (i.e., information that is accessible to the public on a non-discriminatory basis) to be provided; alternatively, the information given to the analyst should be simultaneously made public at the earliest.

- B. Recording of discussion - In order to avoid misquoting or misrepresentation, it is desirable that at least two company representatives be present at meetings with analysts, brokers or institutional investors and discussion should preferably be recorded.
 - C. Handling of unanticipated questions – The Company should be careful when dealing with analysts' questions that raise issues outside the intended scope of discussion.
 - D. Unanticipated questions may be taken on notice and a considered response given later. If the answer includes Unpublished Price-sensitive Information, a public announcement should be made before responding.
 - E. Simultaneous release of Information - When the Company organises meetings with analysts, it shall make a press release or post relevant information on its website after every such meet. The Company may also consider live webcasting of analyst meets.
6. Uniform and Universal Medium of disclosure/dissemination:
- A. Disclosure/dissemination of information may be done through various media so as to achieve maximum reach and quick dissemination.
 - B. The Company shall ensure that disclosure to stock exchanges is made promptly.
 - C. The Company may also facilitate disclosure through the use of their dedicated Internet website.
 - D. The Company's websites may provide a means of giving investors a direct access to analyst briefing material, significant background information and questions and answers.
 - E. The information filed by the Company with exchanges under continual disclosure requirement may be made available on its website.
7. Dissemination by stock exchanges:
- A. The disclosures made to stock exchanges may be disseminated by the exchanges to investors in a quick and efficient manner through the stock exchange network as well as through stock exchange websites.
 - B. Information furnished by the Company under continual disclosure requirements, should be published on the website of the exchange instantly.
8. Handling of all UPSI on 'Need to know' basis:
- Unpublished Price-sensitive Information is to be handled on a "need to know" basis, i.e., should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duty.
9. Determination of Legitimate Purpose:
- A. the term 'legitimate purpose' shall include sharing of Unpublished Price-sensitive Information in the ordinary course of business by an insider with partners, collaborators, lenders, customers, suppliers, merchant bankers, legal advisors, auditors, insolvency professionals or other advisors or consultants, provided that such sharing has not been carried out to evade or circumvent the prohibitions of these regulations.

- B. Any person in receipt of Unpublished Price-sensitive Information pursuant to a 'legitimate purpose' shall be considered an 'insider' for purposes of these regulations and due notice shall be given to such persons to maintain confidentiality of such Unpublished Price-sensitive Information in compliance with these regulations.
